BLUE LOTUS CONSULTING & TRAINING NOW OFFERING VIDEO SERVICES

(Long Beach, CA) In partnership with FLB Productions of Placentia, Long Beach based Blue Lotus Consulting & Training is now offering video production and presentation services to community based organizations.

“There is a great need within the nonprofit community to professionally produce affordable visual presentations that succinctly tell an agency’s story of success and impact. Many organizations use these presentations for fundraising events or to put on their websites,” said Vivian Linderman, owner of Blue Lotus which serves the nonprofit community throughout California.

Blue Lotus has successfully written and produced award winning videos for local clients. The partnership with FLB Productions now brings extensive production services to Blue Lotus including the technical skill to film, edit, produce and stage a quality video or PowerPoint presentation. Fina Lee Bentley of FLB Productions says that, “With today’s technology, options abound from large scale presentations to streaming video on websites or through email, to producing mini DVDs. “
